

GERMANS DRIVE AGAINST BRITISH LINE

Germans Routed by Americans

HAND-TO-HAND FIGHT ON SUNDAY MORNING NORTH OF ST. MIHIEL

After an Intense Bombardment Picked German Troops Attacked, But Were Completely Repulsed.

GRENADES AND BAYONET USED BY THE AMERICANS

Sixty-Four Dead Germans Counted and Several Are Wounded—Surrounded by Germans, 25 Americans Fight Their Way Out.

With the American Army in France, April 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—Two German fighting planes were shot down this morning inside the American lines by Lieutenants A. S. Winslow, of Chicago, and Douglas Campbell, of California. Each man downed one machine. Both the enemy aviators were made prisoners. One of them was slightly wounded.

The machines, which formed part of a patrol of five aircraft, were brought down after a six-minute engagement. One of the enemy machines fell in flames, but the other was only slightly damaged. It is believed that Lieutenant Campbell is the first graduate of a strictly American school to bring down an enemy machine.

The American aviators were encamped when the enemy machines were signalling as crossing the line. Fifteen minutes later sighted the enemy machines and immediately engaged them. Both the captured machines were placed in exhibition in the public square of a town behind the American line, where they were viewed by thousands of persons, who came from miles around.

The French general commanding the zone in which the machines were shot down congratulated the Americans on their beautiful exploit.

Both lieutenants were awarded the war cross.

People of Atlanta Urged to Support Orphans of France

Mlle. Celine Rott, Agent of Society Headed by Marshal Joffre, Speaks at Capital City Club Today—All Atlantans Invited.

"I have been in the trenches and served in the hospitals of France, and pitiful sights are common there, but to me the most pathetic of all, the most hopeless are the moments when the brave young wives of my country come to say farewell to their loved ones, the victims of German shot and shell," Mlle. Celine Rott told a Constitution reporter last night.

The speaker has come to America in the interest of "The Fatherless Children of France," under the auspices of an organization headed by Marshal Joffre, greatest of French heroes. This work has gained great headway in many of the largest cities of the United States, and will be launched in Atlanta at a meeting held in the Capital City club at 4 o'clock this afternoon, at which this noted young Frenchwoman, who has served France well, and has been decorated for bravery under fire, will make the principal address. The meeting will be under the auspices of the National League for Women's Service, Mrs. W. L. Peel, chairman, and every man, woman and child interested in the cause of the allies is invited and urged to be present.

"No One to Care for Them." "I still remember one case," said Mlle. Rott. "It seems to me now, even with the horror of other war scenes so fresh in my memory, that I shall never be able to forget. A young French soldier had been gassed and his wife had been notified that she must come at once, or never see him alive.

"She came with baby in her arms, a small child tagging at her dress. The poor husband was conscious, but could not speak. He held her hand, looked into her eyes, and oh, the agony on his face. He seemed to say—did say, for looks can speak louder than words—'My poor wife, and children, poor little ones, who will take care of them when I am gone?'

"The Frenchman is the most devoted of fathers. He lives his life for practically one thing. That his children may grow up well and strong and good, may receive a decent education, and then be able to do their part in the world—for democracy.

"And now that 600,000 children of France are fatherless, the only way that the beautiful dream of those men, who have gone over the river in the cause of liberty, in the defense of homes, little ones, woman's honor, from the ravages of the Hun, can come true is for America to help.

ATLANTA WORKERS FOR LIBERTY LOAN READY FOR DRIVE

Final Organization of the Canvassing Forces, Which Start Work Tuesday, Will Be Perfected This Morning.

MASS MEETING TONIGHT WILL DRAW THOUSANDS

Wonderful Interest Shown in Tours of Liberty Loan Trains, Declares Massingale on Return From East.

Atlanta's drive to raise her share of the Liberty Loan allotted to this district—$9,000,000—is the goal set—will be given a whirlwind start today, when two meetings of the utmost importance will be held, paving the way for the many committees, which will begin their canvass of the city Tuesday morning.

All the work which has been done up to this time in the Gate City has been of an educational character, and the results have been of a character to assure the success of the campaign. Many workers insist that the amount will be largely over-subscribed, and every effort will be made to achieve this end.

This morning at 11:30 o'clock J. M. B. Hoxsey, chairman of the executive committee for the city, will meet the special force of salesmen at the chamber of commerce and final organization will be perfected. The sales force will be divided into teams and the captain of each team will report results for his team every day during the campaign. There is still room for more salesmen in this work and any who can spare four hours a day for this week are requested to attend this meeting.

Mass Meeting at Atlanta. This evening at 8 o'clock there will be a big mass meeting at the Atlanta theater at which Governor Dorsey, Robert E. Maddox and Lieutenant Merrick, a wounded Canadian officer, will be the principal speakers. There will be a special program, including a military band from Camp Gordon, and every loyal citizen is urged to be present and start the local campaign in a blaze of glory.

During the week the four-minute speakers will continue their drive in the different theaters of the city. The theater managers have gladly given of their time and their houses to this work and the results which have come from the 26,000 speakers who have done this work all over the country have been tremendous in their influence.

In Atlanta the four-minute-speaker committee is headed by State Senator Walter P. Andrews and Edgar A. Neely is vice chairman. Earle E. Griggs, secretary of the committee, announces that the speakers' schedule for the coming week will be as follows:

Program of Speakers. John J. Smith—Monday, Grand; Wednesday, Lyric; Friday, Forsyth; Saturday, Lyric; Sunday, Forsyth. Edgar A. Neely—Monday, Grand; Wednesday, Strand; Friday, Criterion. Ernest A. Bentley—Monday, Bonita; Wednesday, Savoy; Friday, Alamo No. 1; Saturday, Savoy; Sunday, Alamo No. 2; Wednesday, Lyric; Friday, Alpha; Saturday, Lyric; Sunday, Alpha. E. B. O'Donnell—Monday, Alamo No. 2; Thursday, Vaudeville; Saturday, Alpha; Sunday, Lyric. W. E. Griggs—Monday, Vaudeville; Wednesday, Lyric; Friday, Rialto; Saturday, Lyric; Sunday, Rialto. Mark Holding—Monday, Forsyth; Wednesday, Rialto; Friday, Strand; Saturday, Rialto; Sunday, Strand; Wednesday, Criterion; Friday, Bonita; Saturday, Lyric; Sunday, Strand; Thursday, Criterion; Saturday, Bonita. W. S. Dillon—Monday, Alamo No. 2; Wednesday, Alpha; Friday, Savoy; Saturday, Bell—Tuesday, Alamo No. 1; Thursday, Alamo No. 2; Saturday, Vaudeville.

William E. Arnold—Monday, Criterion; Thursday, Lyric; Saturday, Vaudeville; Sunday, Criterion; Tuesday, Bonita. Earl E. Griggs—Monday, Vaudeville; Wednesday, Lyric; Friday, Rialto; Saturday, Lyric; Sunday, Rialto. Strickland Mea to Subscribe.

Throughout the entire southeastern division of railways a systematic campaign has been inaugurated to have all railway officials and employees subscribe to the third Liberty Loan.

Acting under orders from C. H. Markham, regional director for the southeast, all systems in this division have been organized for the bond campaign, and it is the intention of those in charge of this work to see to it that every railway man in the service is given a full opportunity to enter his subscription for as many bonds as he is able to handle.

Mr. Markham has appointed a regional committee to have general oversight of this work and to see that all lines and divisions are properly lined up for the campaign. E. T. Lamb, president of the A. B. & A. is chairman of this committee, and associated with him are H. W. Miller, vice president of the Southern; C. A. Wickert, president of the Georgia Railway and Electric Co.; and J. W. Miller, president of the Georgia Railway and Electric Co.

WITH 293 CYCLOPS ON BOARD BIG NAVY COLLIER CYCLOPS MORE THAN A MONTH OVERDUE

BREWERS TERMED "DOMESTIC HUNS"

The Stockholders Are Now Using Profits in Financing Pro-German Propaganda Here, Says Capt. Hobson.

Characterizing the brewers of America as the "Domestic Huns" and declaring them to be the backbone of the liquor traffic in this country, Captain Richmond Pearson Hobson last night told a large audience gathered at the First Presbyterian church that the "Domestic Huns" were more destructive than the foreign foe, and that with 700,000 deaths each twelve months in this country chargeable to the liquor traffic, more men were destroyed thereby than were killed in the same period of time on all the fronts in the great world war.

The brewers, he declared, are the backbone of the liquor traffic, and the brewers are the Germans. The stockholders of the breweries are Germans, said Captain Hobson, and now that they are prevented from sending the earnings of the stock to the owners in the fatherland, they are using the money in this country to finance the pro-German propaganda and to further the interests of the kaiser, he charged. The government has evidence, said the speaker, showing these statements to be facts.

Plain Temperance Lecture. Captain Hobson was speaking in the interest of the National Anti-Saloon league, of which he is the field representative, and he delivered one of the finest temperance addresses that an Atlanta audience ever listened to. It was pitched upon a high plane of intellectuality and worked out on a scientific basis, and was handled in a masterful style and Capital.

SENATOR W. J. STONE PASSES INTO UNKNOWN

Democratic Leader Dies in Washington After Stroke of Paralysis.

Washington, April 14.—Senator William J. Stone, of Missouri, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee and for many years prominent among democratic leaders, died here today after a stroke of paralysis suffered last Wednesday.

Senator Stone suffered the stroke while on a street car on his way to the senate office building. A slight cerebral hemorrhage affected his left side, rendering him helpless, but he did not lose consciousness, and a few hours later rallied and began to talk about getting up. His family and friends were very hopeful yesterday, when there was a decided turn for the worse.

Today there was a second cerebral hemorrhage, and the senator fell into a state of coma. Death came at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon, but the physician made no announcement until an hour later, because twice before the patient's pulse had become so weak that the family thought the end had come.

At the bedside were Mrs. Stone and their children, Federal Judge Kimbrough, of Kansas City; Mrs. John W. Parkinson, of St. Joseph, Mo.; Miss Mabel Stone, and niece, Miss Margaret Winston, of St. Louis. All the members of the Missouri delegation in congress were at the home during the day, and there were scores of other callers among officials and members of congress.

Senator Reed announced tonight that funeral services would be held tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home, and the family, accompanied by a congressional committee, will leave with the body in the evening for St. Louis. At St. Louis a night train will be taken for Jefferson City, where the body will rest in state in the state capitol Wednesday. That evening the body will be taken to Nevada, Mo. Senator Stone's old home, for burial there by the Nevada Masonic lodge.

A successor to Senator Stone, to hold office until the next general election in November, will be appointed by Governor Gardner, of Missouri, who is a democrat. Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, ranking democrat of the foreign relations committee, is expected to succeed to the chairmanship.

Vessel Was Bringing Cargo of Manganese From Brazil and Carried 57 Passengers, 15 Officers and 221 Men in Crew.

TWO ATLANTANS LISTED AS MEMBERS OF CREW

Several Men From Other Georgia Towns Also on Board—Cyclops Was Last Reported at Port in West Indies—Thorough Search of Vessel's Course Being Made.

Washington, April 14.—The big American naval collier Cyclops, carrying 57 passengers, 15 officers and 221 men in her crew, has been overdue in an Atlantic port since March 13. The navy department announced today that she was last reported at a West Indies island port March 4, and that extreme anxiety is entertained as to her safety. The vessel was bringing a cargo of manganese from Brazil.

Thorough Search of Course. The Cyclops had one engine damaged when she left the West Indies, but the department said this fact would not have prevented her from communicating by radio, and all efforts to reach her by that means have been unsuccessful. A thorough search of the course which she would have followed in coming to port has been made and continues, it was announced.

Alfred L. Moreau Gottschalk, United States consul general at Rio de Janeiro, was the only civilian among the passengers on the collier, the others being two naval lieutenants and 54 naval enlisted men. The Cyclops was commanded by Lieutenant Commander G. W. Worley, U. S. A. naval reserve force.

There have been no reports of German submarines or raiders in the locality in which the collier was last seen, the department said; the weather had not been stormy, and could hardly have given the collier trouble.

The fact that the collier had been missing nearly a month became known here Thursday, April 11. The naval censor requested the Associated Press not to publish the fact on the ground that the ship had not been given up for lost, and that to publish the fact that she was overdue might expose the Cyclops to submarines or other enemy attack, while she might have been disabled on the high seas. The official announcement by the navy department today gave the ship up as lost, but merely says "the navy department feels extremely anxious as to her safety."

Statement by Navy Department. The statement follows: "The United States steamship Cyclops, navy collier of 19,000 tons displacement, loaded with a cargo of manganese, and with a personnel on board of 15 officers and 221 men of the crew, and 57 passengers, is overdue at an Atlantic port since March 13. She last reported at the West Indies island port of March 4, and since her departure from that port, no trace of her or any information concerning her has been received. The Cyclops was injured and vessels sent to search for her along her probable route and areas in which she might be, with no success.

"No well founded reason can be given to explain the Cyclops being overdue, no radio communication with or trace of her has been had since leaving the West Indies port. The weather in the area in which the vessel must have passed has not been bad and could hardly have given the Cyclops trouble. While a raider or submarine could be responsible for her loss, there have been no reports that would indicate the presence of either in the locality in which the Cyclops was.

"It was known that one of the two engines of the Cyclops was injured and that she was proceeding at a reduced speed with one engine compounded. This fact would have no effect on her ability to communicate by radio, for even if her main engines were totally disabled, the ship and since her departure would have no effect on her ability of using her radio plants.

"The search for the Cyclops still continues, but the navy department feels extremely anxious as to her safety."

Several Georgians in Crew. There were no men from the south among the officers and passengers, but included among the 221 members of the crew of the Cyclops were 88 southern men, as follows: Alleman, Alfred Francis, fireman, Gulfport, Miss.; Alfred, George Henry, fireman, Rankin, Miss.; Ashbee, Charles Spruill, Jr., seaman, Berkeley, Va.; Barrow, George West, seaman, Columbus, Miss.; Battle, Lee Otis, seaman, Andalusia, Ala.; Baggs, Hamilton Thompson, Electrician, Gulfport, Miss.

REGULARS COMING TO CAMP GORDON

Brigade Has Been Ordered to Local Cantonment in Addition to Men of National Army Who Will Be Trained Here.

In addition to providing training quarters for national army forces, Camp Gordon will, in the course of a very few days, become a base for units of the regular army of the United States.

This fact was officially announced Saturday by officers of the camp's division headquarters, who stated that a brigade of regular army troops has been ordered to Gordon, and will report there, in all probability, during this week.

The name of the brigade, the division to which it belongs, the place in which it is now stationed and the time when it will arrive at Camp Gordon will not be published until it actually arrives, in accordance with rules of national censorship.

The strength of a brigade of infantry consists of two regiments of troops, each numbering approximately 3,500 men. It is stated, however, that the present regular army brigade ordered to Camp Gordon will not be up to war strength, and consequently will be smaller than the regulation size.

Coming just at the time when the future of Camp Gordon as a training point for military forces is still a matter of conjecture, the announcement of the coming of the regulars to the Georgia cantonment is of especial interest. How long the regiment will remain at the camp in its tents is not known, but it is entirely possible that the camp may be made a base for regular army forces at all times.

Reports that two divisions are to be trained at Gordon and that the camp is to be almost doubled in size still remain unconfirmed, though both seem highly probable. That Gordon is a fixture in the military training system of the nation is a matter of certainty, and all that remains is the official announcement of the part it will play. It is expected that this will be one of the foremost importance.

Picture Records Of City Smashed By "The Kaiser"

The Thrilling Photo Play, Which Has Just Ended Week at Rialto Theater, Played to Capacity Every Performance and Turned Thousands of People Away.

The engagement of the thrilling photoplay, "The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin," at the Rialto theater last week, broke all records for a week's run of any attraction ever shown in an Atlanta picture house, was the statement made last night by Hugh Cordova, manager of the theater.

The picture met with a splendid reception, and the Constitution is gratified that its action in bringing this patriotic picture to Atlanta in response to the urging of the American Defense Society met such a widespread response from the people of the city.

The "S. R. O." sign was hung out at the Rialto, every performance for every day of the week. Thousands who tried to see the picture were unable to secure admittance on account of the huge crowds which flocked to the theater and at all hours of the day there was a line of waiting spectators outside the theater which filled the lobby and overflowed down the street for long distances.

The keen enthusiasm this picture aroused is striking evidence of the intense patriotism of the people of this section of the country and the value of the picture as an anti-German propaganda weapon is also demonstrated.

More people saw "The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin," than have seen any other picture which ever came to an Atlanta picture house; more money was taken in the box office; more people were turned away on account of lack of room and more favorable comment was excited on the streets, in the business places and in the homes.

THOUSANDS SLAIN IN VAIN EFFORTS TO MAKE ADVANCE

Field Marshal Haig's Order That No More Ground Be Yielded Is Being Rigidly Complied With by British.

DESPERATE STRUGGLE AROUND NEUVE EGLISE

Village Repeatedly Changed Hands, But Finally Remained in Hands of the British—Nowhere Have the Germans Met With Anything But Bloody Repulse.

New York, April 14.—(By Associated Press. From European cables of the day.)—The entire allied line in Belgium and France is holding firm. Nowhere have the Germans been able, notwithstanding the great numbers of men hurled against it, especially that portion in Flanders where the British are holding forth, to gain an inch of ground. Field Marshal Haig's order that no more ground be ceded is rigidly being complied with, as is attested by the thousands of Germans dead now lying before the British positions southwest of Ypres, where it is the ambition of the high German command to break through and envelop Field Marshal Haig's forces and gain an open highway toward the English channel.

AMERICANS STOP HEAVY ASSAULTS. Northwest of St. Mihiel the American troops have been compelled to withstand a series of persistent assaults, second in intensity only to those delivered by the Germans against the British in Flanders. And the honors at the end rested with the Americans, who met the foe at every style of fighting he offered and decisively defeated him.

The latest German official communication, dealing with the situation in the region of St. Mihiel, where the Americans are defending the line, says that the Germans inflicted heavy losses on the Americans in a successful thrust and also took prisoners. The same report gives the Germans credit for gains of ground on the Lys battle front, where the British are opposed to them.

Along the front held by the French Sunday saw nothing of greater importance than reciprocal bombardments on various sectors, the troops of both sides remaining in their trenches. Likewise, in Italy, the big guns were doing most of the work, although at several points enemy patrols attempted to carry out diversions, but met with no success.

BLOODY FIGHTING AT NEUVE EGLISE. At Neuve Eglise, northwest of Arras, where the Germans are endeavoring to drive their wedge in farther in order to outflank Ypres, the heaviest fighting has taken place. Throughout Saturday night and Sunday morning a most obstinate character took place, the Germans throwing thousands of men into the attack, notwithstanding their wastage in killed or wounded. Several times the village changed hands, but at last reports the British were still in possession of it, holding tenaciously under repeated German onslaughts. Nowhere else the 8-mile front where the Germans are trying to drive their wedge between Wulverghem and Meten, have the Germans met with anything but repulse, and the price they have paid for their attempts to breach the British line has been enormous. On no sector have they been able to surmount the stone wall of the defense and, for the moment, at least, there seems to be justification for the hope that the turn in the tide of the battle is at hand.

Documents captured from German prisoners show conclusively that the great offensive of the Germans was launched with the intention of separating the British and French armies and crushing of the British.

PILES OF OWN DEAD FREQUENTLY HALT GERMAN ADVANCE

Ottawa, Ont., April 14.—"A bitter wind is raging in Flanders and visibility is very low," says Reuters' correspondent at British headquarters in France in a dispatch received here tonight. "The situation is generally unchanged. The enemy continues to employ fresh troops and we are likewise steadily increasing our forces. Consequently the battle is more stationary, although as intense as ever."

"Yesterday morning the Germans launched a heavy attack against a length of front they have been attacking continuously and unsuccessfully for several days."

The keen enthusiasm this picture aroused is striking evidence of the intense patriotism of the people of this section of the country and the value of the picture as an anti-German propaganda weapon is also demonstrated.

More people saw "The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin," than have seen any other picture which ever came to an Atlanta picture house; more money was taken in the box office; more people were turned away on account of lack of room and more favorable comment was excited on the streets, in the business places and in the homes.

W. SCHLEY HOWARD ASKED TO ADDRESS LABOR FEDERATION

By J. A. Holloman.
Washington, April 14.—(Special).—Congressman William Schley Howard, who is a candidate for the senate, today received a telegraphic invitation from Louis P. Marquardt, president of the Georgia Federation of Labor, to address the state convention of the federation in Augusta this week, but has been forced to decline by reason of the pressing demand upon him in the appropriation committee hearings the next few days.

SHE HAD LOST 37 POUNDS IN WEIGHT

Well-Known Atlanta Lady
Tells How Plant Juice Benefited Her Stomach Trouble, After Suffering For Years.

The Jacobs Pharmacy (Main Store), No. 6-8 Marietta street, Atlanta, where Plant Juice, the new herbal stomach remedy is being introduced, has presented a scene of unusual activity for the past few days. Many people are calling out of gratitude to thank the

MISS HULDA J. COX.

Plant Juice Man for what his medicine has done for them. Among those who may be quoted is that of Miss Hulda J. Cox, who resides at No. 84 Capitol avenue, who has resided there all of her life and is well known and highly respected by a large circle of friends. She stated:

"Several years ago I commenced to have stomach trouble and it gradually grew worse. I became so bad that I suffered pain all through my body. My food fermented and formed gas, which caused bloating and was very painful. I lost 37 pounds in weight in two years and was steadily growing worse. I was nervous and many nights I could not get a wink of sleep. Recently I suffered great pain around my heart. I had used so many different kinds of medicine without relief that I was discouraged and to even look at a spoon would make me sick at my stomach. I have used Plant Juice for just a short time now and no one can imagine the benefit I have had in that time. I can now eat what I want and the pain through my body and around my heart has entirely disappeared. I am recommending Plant Juice to all of my friends."

The Plant Juice Man is at Jacobs Pharmacy (Main Store), Nos. 6-8 Marietta street, Atlanta, where he is daily meeting the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of Plant Juice. Free samples given.—(adv.)

DESERTION CHARGED TO MANY GEORGIANS

List of Alleged Slackers in Grady, Emanuel and Chat-tahoocnee Counties Furnished Adjutant General.

Charges of desertion have been brought against Georgia men from Grady, Emanuel and Chatahoocnee counties by the state adjutant general in a new report on Georgia deserters, addressed to the adjutant general of the army at Washington.

The new list of men is supplementary to several others already published in The Constitution and includes, as did the others, the names of men who failed to report for military duty when so ordered by the adjutant general of the state through local boards.

A considerable per cent of men previously posted as deserters have since been found to have enlisted in other branches of the service before the privilege of voluntary enlistment was taken away from men of draft age. This list probably includes some men of similar status who will be dropped from it as soon as the proper notification reaches their boards. The list follows:

Enthusiasm in East.
St. Elmo Massengale, chairman of the publicity committee of the Liberty Loan campaign in the sixth federal reserve district, returned Sunday from a trip to Washington, New York and points east.

Massengale reports a veritable whirlwind of Liberty Loan enthusiasm at all points of his journey. The large cities of the east are worked up to a high pitch of patriotic fervor, and local committees in every community are busily engaged in every way raising the present loan in record time.

Among leaders in the campaign in Washington and the east, Mr. Massengale says that one of the subjects causing the greatest enthusiasm is the special war relic exhibition trains which are now touring the sixth district. Only three districts in the entire country have such trains and the Atlanta district is the only one to support two of the trains.

A constant stream of daily telegrams from the chairman in charge of these trains reporting undreamed of success has convinced the authorities that this is probably the most effective publicity work yet done for the bonds. It has succeeded in reaching the farmers and rural community residents as no other effort has done and the results have convinced Washington that rural Americans are back of the war to the last penny.

An interesting feature of recent reports from the east is that the colored farmers are buying the bonds heavily. Many thousands of dollars have been subscribed from $500 up have been recorded from these people.

Women of Sixth District Make Record Bond Sales

Mrs. Solon Jacobs, of Birmingham, chairman for the Alabama Women's Liberty Loan committee, has wired Mrs. Haynes McFadden, chairman of the sixth federal reserve district, that the latest and largest sale made by the Alabama women is for $1,000,000, making a total to date of $2,500,000.

Mrs. Jacobs has a complete working organization in each of the sixty-seven counties of her state, and she wires that the energy and enthusiasm of the women all over the state is remarkable. She further states that, with the exception of the steel company's subscription of $1,500,000, the women of the state have made a total of $1,000,000, making a total to date of $2,500,000.

Mrs. Z. I. Fitzpatrick, of Madison, the efficient temporary state chairman of the women of the Alabama Women's Liberty Loan committee, has reported subscriptions from three counties alone totaling $85,000. She wires that the women of Chatahoocnee county, of which Mrs. George Esby, of Summerville, is chairman, have taken subscriptions to the amount of $23,000.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick, appreciating the importance of the personal touch, has been visiting during the past week some of the congressional districts of the state in the interest of the present drive. She visited Savannah and the first district last week and found that Miss Fannie Lou Sims, of Reidsville, chairman of the district, had perfected a fine, enthusiastic organization.

The women of Savannah, under the leadership of Mrs. Robert Billington, are doing splendid work, having the added inspiration of Mrs. W. R. Lester's presence.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick has visited the second district of which Mrs. Walter L. Wright, of Cairo, is chairman, and has made a number of automobile trips throughout Morgan and other counties of the state.

ANIMALS GALORE APPEAR ON SCREEN IN TARZAN PICTURE

After recording the biggest business in the history of any photoplay house in Atlanta with the thrilling picture, "The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin," and turning away thousands during the week, the Rialto will this week offer another sensation feature, one of the biggest pictures ever filmed, "Tarzan of the Apes."

"How was it possible to stage such scenes?" in the wonder film of Edgar Rice Burroughs' weird adventure story of African jungle and English manor, there are some very startling and interesting scenes participated in by wild animals.

Lions, tigers, leopards, panthers, gorillas and monkeys, large and small, all do "their bit," but what is probably the most interesting of all the animal acting is that done by the elephant when he becomes enraged and with his immense trunk uproots a full-grown tree. The audience sees the mighty beast exert his strength against the tree, which gradually comes away from the ground, its roots tearing the soil for considerable distance in all directions. It is undoubtedly the greatest bit of animal acting ever screened, according to The New York Press.

Quite a notable cast of human actors also participate in "Tarzan of the Apes," French, the gallant Italian, and now the never-conquered American will be annihilated before they will be ruled by the Hun. Thousands Cheer Address Scoring Hun Propaganda

"I Wish It Were Possible
to Invent Gas Masks to Shut Out This German
Poison," Says J. A. Whitmore.

"Stop this German propaganda. I wish it were humanly possible to invent a gas mask to be used by the home people to protect themselves against this form of German poison."

This statement by J. A. Whitmore, secretary of the New York War Defense Council of the Y. M. C. A., brought much applause from an audience of 6,000 Atlantans, who attended the regular Sunday afternoon entertainment of the Atlanta war camp community service.

"Have you heard that our boys are drunk in France?" continued Mr. Whitmore. "Have you been told that disease is prevalent among the American expeditionary forces?" If so, the statement is a German lie. Drunkenness in the American army in America is one-half less than among the civil population. In the American army in France it is one-third less than in the American army in America.

"I was in Paris when the American engineers passed through the city, the streets were crowded with women and little children—little children on their knees thanking God that America had seen the vision and had joined the allies at the outpost of civilization to take her stand for humanity and God."

"The stoic Briton, the romantic French, the gallant Italian, and now the never-conquered American will be annihilated before they will be ruled by the Hun. Subscribe to the third Liberty Loan until it hurts. The fate of these are experienced screen actors."

ful hour has now struck for the allies today."

Lieutenant R. C. Merriek, M. C., of the Canadian army, also spoke in the interest of the loan. Lieutenant Merriek, who has been out of the hospital only three days, made a most interesting talk. He will be one of the principal speakers at the Liberty Loan rally at the Atlanta tonight.

The community singing was led by Warren Kimsay, army songleader from Camp Gordon.

DOLVIN ORDINANCE DECLARED ILLEGAL BY SUPREME COURT

The old familiar charge of violating the Dolvin ordinance is now obsolete at the police station, according to the orders that went into effect Sunday.

In the decision just rendered in the case of Lanford, superintendent, vs. Alfriend, the supreme court ruled that the famous "traveling blind tiger ordinance" was invalid, as the state law now has laws covering all phases of the prohibition question.

Acting on the advice of James L. Mayson, city attorney, Chief Beavers issued a special order instructing the station sergeants to mark all liquor cases with the blanket charge, disorderly conduct, and assess the bonds not less than $100.

WEST END CANNERS WILL MEET TONIGHT

A meeting of the members of the West End Canning club will be held tonight in the auditorium of the Lucile Avenue school at 8 o'clock. Mrs. J. E. Dance, secretary of the organization, announces that the club has several vacant places which will be used in the members for gardens. Many prominent speakers are on the program. The public is invited.

John McCormack's
newest Victor Record is a beautiful sacred song

The Lord is My Light John McCormack
Victrola Red Seal Record 64726. Ten-inch, $1

A beautiful prayer of faith and hope as expressed by the Psalmist David, with a melodious musical setting that adds to its dignity and impressiveness.

McCormack interprets it stirringly, with a deep religious feeling that makes its message as inspiring today as in the times of old.

It is an exquisite McCormack record; a superb sacred record; a record every lover of sacred music will want to add to his collection of Victor Records.

Go to-day to any Victor dealer's and have him play this new McCormack record or any other music by the world's greatest artists who make Victrola Records exclusively. He will also gladly demonstrate the various styles of the Victor and Victrola—$10 to $400. Period styles to order from $375 to $950.

Victor Talking Machine Co., Camden, N. J.

Important Notice. Victor Records and Victor Machines are scientifically coordinated and synchronized in the processes of manufacture, and their use, one with the other, is absolutely essential to a perfect reproduction. New Victor Records demonstrated at all dealers on the 1st of each month.

ALL-FEMININE BILL IS COMING TO GRAND

Illustrating the steady growth of the feminist movement, Manager F. A. Petrich, of Loew's Grand theater, announces that for the first three days of next week he will present a program in which every participant is a member of the weaker sex. There are often many strange combinations in vaudeville bills, as for instance a recent bill at the Grand in which every artist was a woman with one exception, and that, by exception, by some strange irony of fate, was an armless man. The forthcoming bill, however, is believed to be the first made up entirely of women and it is described as a humdinger.

BACKS TO THE WALL!

From this distance it appears that the crisis on the western front has about reached its peak.

It looks as though the allied forces can give way no further without a very serious
break in the line.

So there is going to be no further giving way!

The line, by bending, has held up to now,
and it will continue to hold!

With the deep-meaning words of determination of Field Marshal Haig ringing in their ears above the din of bursting projectiles and bellowing cannon, the brave men of the allied armies will stand—they are bound to stand! And when they move it will be forward!

"With our backs to the wall," said Haig to his troops—an order that will live always:

"WITH OUR BACKS TO THE WALL,
BELIEVING IN THE JUSTICE OF OUR CAUSE, WE MUST FIGHT TO THE END FOR THE SAFETY OF OUR HOMES AND THE FREEDOM OF MAN-KIND. I DEPEND UPON THE COUR-AGE OF EACH MAN AT THIS CRIT-ICAL MOMENT."

"EVERY POSITION MUST BE HELD
TO THE LAST MAN WITH NO RETIRE-MENT."

Men imbued with the spirit expressed in that order may be killed, but they can never be beaten!

And unless our confidence in the manhood that is today on the western front
standing between the Hun and human liberty is to be shattered, those men will stand their ground through this crisis.

Then will come the reaction, which inevitably follows every action; and when it comes the doom of Prussianism will be in its wake!

NEGROES BACK UNCLE SAM.

The responsiveness of the negro to his country's call for maximum service, and his willingness to do his utmost to help meet
the urgent demands of the day, are strikingly illustrated by the rural progress the negroes of Sumter county, S. C., are making under the tutelage and guidance of the Council of Defense.

An official report of what has been and is being done there by Council Secretary
E. T. Reardon, starts out with the statement that over one-half of the population of that county is black; and, therefore, the negro farmers naturally come in for a large share of the council's attention. They have been taken into the confidences of the council,
and have been most alert in organizing Red Cross society units, buying Liberty Bonds and Thrift Stamps, engaging in war work generally, and especially in striving for a maximum of food conservation and of food crops production. The negroes have been taught that this "is as much their war
as the white people's war," and according to Mr. Reardon, the whole county is alive with that sentiment.

And, after a year's intensive, constructive effort among the negroes of the county, the council secretary finds that—

"There is more prosperity in Sumter county than ever before. Thousands of colored farmers have paid clean bills of debts; paid old debts from tobacco money, and have their cotton clear. By getting into close touch with the colored men and women, and helping them, we have made this one of the most prosperous counties in the south. Where twelve months ago poverty prevailed and actual want, nearly every colored family has plenty of chickens, sweet potatoes, hogs,
for a year; and we have induced thousands to can vegetables, berries and fruit."

"Our colored people," the report continues—

"are loyal and patriotic. They work with us in all matters for public welfare.
We are delighted with the results.
We are keeping it up. All the colored man needs is intelligent leadership and co-operation. By having the loyal and intelligent colored leaders in touch with white leaders, and giving support, financial and moral, we easily lined up the colored population for their good, and our good. But we had to go to them, and have them come to us. No social restrictions were broken down. We worked on business principles; and they understood this."

All of which leads to the conclusion that in a purely economic sense, exclusive of all others, the war is already proving a potential blessing to the negro. It is teaching him valuable lessons in industry, thrift and frugality; it is teaching him how to be selfhelpful, and how to gain prosperity through his own industry. And it goes without saying that no post-bellum business readjustments will imperil this brand of prosperity
—as they can imperil no prosperity that is grounded in the soil.

GET THESE OUTLAWS!

In Lowndes county a night or two ago six cattle dipping vats, erected at the expense
of enterprising and progressive farmers,
were, according to reports to the authorities
at Valdosta, blown up and ruined by a band of obstructionist dynamiters.

Without knowledge as to the personnel of the outlaw band, it is patent that every member of it—whether composed of three men or
a dozen—is not only an unworthy citizen,
but a desperado and a menace to the community which harbors him and to the state.
The iron hand of justice should be clamped down upon such men and they should be put
where they can do no more harm.

Down in that promising and fertile section of the state the Georgia Landowners' association is holding daily and nightly meetings in the country schoolhouses of the various counties, encouraging the farmers and stockmen to join in the fight against the cattle tick—a pest that is annually costing thousands upon thousands of dollars in loss
of beef, milk and leather production in Georgia.

The most approved, and by experience
the thoroughly proven means of eradicating
the cattle tick, is the dipping vat. The wide-awake country people of south Georgia are organizing against the cattle tick and almost every community which has not already done
so is preparing to send a delegation to the county seat to impress upon the county commissioner the necessity of appropriating funds with which to assist the individual citizens in the construction of dipping vats,
the objective being to make Georgia tick-free
in the shortest possible time.

But how futile it is to build dipping vats
at cost in time, energy and cash, while a handful of roving fanatical dissenters, essay-ing the role of bandits riding by night, is at large and free to follow, armed with dynamite,
and in a foray lay waste the efforts of weeks
or months by the enterprising and worthy majority element of the community!

That thing must stop in Georgia!
Those dynamiters should be taught that Georgia is a state of law and order, and of progress, and it behooves the authorities of every county in which this form of outlawry still lives—and such counties are few—to concentrate their attention upon the business of stamping it out.

A few examples of this kind would do a world of good.

THE LOYAL SPIRIT.

To "help till it hurts" is what the people everywhere should be willing to do until
the war is won.

Notable examples of this loyal, patriotic spirit are in evidence on all sides—willingness to serve and sacrifice for the country's sake.

And one of the most noteworthy instances of the spirit of service came to light
recently through the action of the people of Grimes county, Texas, as related in The Houston Post:

The people of Grimes county are well-to-do, economical, and thrifty. They have the money with which to buy food and other essentials and luxuries. They are proud, too, and when they found a scarcity of flour in sight they ordered a supply. But the people of Grimes county are patriots. As the supply of flour was rolling in over the rails that the Minnesota to Texas, the people of Grimes county were impressed with the fact that
"our boys in France" have none too large a supply of flour. Once that fact intruded itself upon them, the people of Grimes county offered their supplies of flour to the government for "our boys in France,"
and announced that hereafter they—the people of Grimes county, in the state of Texas—would eat no more flour until every need in France is met.

That sort of patriotism doesn't mean
one step only on the service road, but implies willingness to go the whole way—to meet all emergencies; to anticipate the country's needs, and give till all is given!

And that the spirit of it takes in the whole country is, in and of itself, the strength to keep the country steadfast to the day of victory.

We must give and serve as we can—all
with the same high, patriotic purpose.

On the general line of helpfulness the Tifton (Ga.) Gazette has this other little story:

A Colquitt county farmer walked up to the U. S. C. booth and bought $1,000 worth of Thrift stamps. That was a record for this section, and shows that the rural population of Colquitt is awaking to the fact that we are at war. We expect to see many farmers in Tift county lay-away $1,000 against a rainy day in government bonds before the Third Liberty Loan is subscribed.

Awaking to the full meaning of the fact that we are at war, the people are ready to meet war's demands.

"What can we do to help?" is the one question everywhere.

They've added a new planet to the solar system, but our chief concern now is the salvation of this one.

And if the rose can't brave a frost,

Don't advertise for roses lost.

Glad if each war-plan is a winner:

It's Cabbage rings the bell for dinner!"

Good Roads Pioneer

Makes Strong Plea

For New Road Laws

Editor Constitution: That quarter of a million dollar automobile tax fund that is to be distributed to the counties of Georgia for road building should be fully twice the amount (the tax in Alabama is $8 for driver)
and then used in building state highways
first and then county, then state and west.

Put with this automobile fund a like amount annually, one-half out of the government road fund and one-half by the counties through which the highway would go.
With a million a year expended on state
highways, Georgia would soon have roads
that all the people would be justly proud of,
roads that serve the people, both local and tourist.

The fact that the road today from Tennessee to the Florida line is practically graded and bridged, would make the million
a year go a long ways, both north and south, of Macon. Also in the building of proposed highways no city or town limits should be recognized—make them good all the way.
The city or town usually pays from one-
fourth to three-fourths of the country taxes
in which it is located.

Now, to satisfy the always ready kicker
as to who would pay for highways. The automobile owner pays half; no kick there. He is more than anxious for a highway connecting with other state highways. Let one-fourth be taken from the government state highway appropriation, which, considering the mileage and territory covered, would be in all fairness to the balance of the state
and would be approved by the government.
Let the other fourth be paid by the counties
through which the highway is located, each

Build a Bridge of Ships.

(General Pershing's Message to America,

January, 1918.)

Build a bridge of ships to Pershing o'er the

sea;

Stand behind our boys in France for liberty.

Hold the line; close the ranks;

Move like a million tanks;

Build a bridge of ships to Pershing o'er the

sea.

Buy a bond to help our boys who fight for you,

Send the loaded ships across the ocean blue,

With the stamps come across;

With the bonds come across;

Send the ships across to Pershing o'er the

sea.

Do you hear their bugles calling you and me;

Send more men, and guns, and airplanes o'er

the sea?

The hand that buys the bond

Moves the ship across the pond,

Build a bridge of ships to Pershing o'er the

sea.

GERMANY TODAY

Only Paper Clothes Can Be Bought in Germany Now

BY BLANCHE SLOCUM

(Copyright, 1918, for The Atlanta Constitution.)

(Fourth of the series of fifteen articles by Miss Virginia Murray, of Oak Park, who left Germany last January and arrived home on March 28. Her experiences and observations in Berlin and elsewhere in Germany,
where she resided as a music student, are the most recent of any accessible to the American people.)

While I saw posters in Germany—"Help
the Fatherland by Collecting Thrifts!"— with pictures of children so employed, I never chanced to see the cloth German industry has contrived to make from thrifts, nor did I see the cloth it has contrived to make from paper, though I remember hearing of it. Thrifts are made of straw, and demanded cloth for sustenance. "No, you must use paper cloth; it's excellent." And yet
I was sufficiently aware of a clothes crisis
even in 1914.

Early in the war almost all cloth that could be used for uniforms was commandeered and we learned that we could purchase clothing only by permit (Bezugschein) and must appeal to the police for that. This was fairly easy at first. As time went on, formalities, red tape and a kind of third degree cross questioning came to attend all our applications for the Bezugschein. As the well-known French wit would have said: "Getting leave to buy anything to wear was less adventure than a career."

Difficulty in Buying Cloth.
Before my departure from Munich in January, 1918, I wanted to buy a skirt, so went to the police station, where an official and I had a talk that ran like this:
"Want a skirt, do you? How many have you now?"
"None decent to wear but what I've got on."

"You'd better tell the truth, because the police will come and see."
"All right, the whole truth is, I haven't a skirt to my name, except just this."

"What did you do with the old ones?"
"Gave them away."

"He had his doubts as to that, and I had my troubles before the affair was settled,
but I finally got my "schein."

Another time I wanted linen, as the laun-
dresses had either no linen or lost mine.
"Bring your worn out things," said the official, "so that I can be sure you need new ones."

"But they're missing," I explained; "the laundress says she can't find them."
He replied: "Then the laundress must come and swear."

Only One Pair Stockings.
In Germany you could not buy to buy one pair of stockings at a time, and only one garment of underwear at a time, and only one dress or suit at a time, and you must show that you are in desperate need by exhibiting rags and tatters, or in some way proving your requirements. It is no good to fib. All your purchases have been listed by the police.

Queer dialogues I used to overhear at the police station. I often wondered how the officers kept their tempers, women cried and wrangled and fought so, and the demand for a "schein" was so often calculated to enrage the official mind. A housemaid said: "My lady wants a new nightgown." "How many has she got now, more than ten?" "I can't tell." "Go home and count them and have her come and tend to it herself." A hausfrau said: "I want a fancy vest for my man." "He doesn't need one in wartime. Go on home."

This was not because of any mere love for red tape on the officials part. Textiles were scarce and growing scarcer. In Munich
I inquired the price of ordinary cotton aprons
at the largest department store and heard:
"We haven't got an ordinary cotton apron
in the house—no nor a cotton sheet." It was just as well, I suppose, for prices have risen to a point unprecedented. One can pay $100 for a dreadful looking suit.

Prices Soaring Skyward.
Stockings are excessively dear and to be had only in pairs. Gloves that used to be 50 cents a pair in Germany now cost $4.
And while the government strives in every way to keep down the price of food, it seems to make no effort at all to keep down the price of things to wear. It likes high prices, as they make people go extremely slow about buying.

Germans were never well dressed according to our standards, but today they are out and out seedy. Audiences at the opera look poverty stricken. Darning and patching have gone lengths never before dreamed of, and among the poor you frequently see garments patched with several different kinds of cloth. All sorts of clothing charities thrive at first, but now it is hard for them to get things to give away.

The trade in second-hand clothing has more than doubled its activity, and the old clothes men continually storm your door.

You can sell him the worst old rags.

Few Wear Mourning.
Early in the war mourning black was everywhere. It is still allowed, but a great many families go without, partly from economy, partly because it was said that the kaiser disapproved, and partly because of the red tape to be gone through with before one can secure a "schein." Not to mention more elaborate formalities, applicants must submit the death certificate.

It is not only the scarcity of cloth that torments wearing Germany, it is also the quality of what cloth exists. Almost every one wears shoddy; almost every one wears plains in winter of not being anything like warm enough. How I pitied the children who had no stockings inside their wooden shoes. Quite frequently those were the children of upper class Germans.

Wooden shoes abound in Germany and the streets are all uproariously a-clatter
with the wooden sandals of German children, while people who had never tried on a

RECEPTIONS ARE READY FOR ATLANTA TOURISTS

Big Time Promised Auto Association Members Who Will Boost Good Roads.

Twenty-five Atlantans, members of the State Automobile association, who will go to north Georgia this week, are being received by Secretary Frank Reynolds at the Dixie highway in the very pink of condition.

A meeting will be held by these tourists at the association office at 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon to assign guests to the different cars and position the autos in the run. The boosters will leave Hotel Ansley Thursday morning at 7:30 o'clock. A brief stop will be made at Marietta, where a conference will be held with Mayor Jim Brumby to plan a special trip to that city in the near future.

The first scheduled stop will be at Cartersville, where Mayor Paschel, Mayor Oscar Peoples, Will Satterfield and Levi Reeves, together with the citizens, will welcome the visitors. At Calhoun, Tom Boaz and Hon. O. N. S. Gordon county will be met by President Tyler, of the Dalton Chamber of Commerce; Mayor Jim Robinson, Clayton Moore and other Daltonians, and the guests will be shown the beautiful Dalton country club and golf links, after which they will be taken into the city and a dinner will be tendered by the Chattahoochee Automobile club.

Early Friday morning the party will leave from Hotel Patten and go direct through the military encampment at Fort Oglethorpe, in Chickasaw county, to LaFayette, where Mayor Davenport will do the honors. At Summerville, Kelly Blitting and a large crowd of Chattahoochee county people will assemble and welcome the tourists. At noon the party will be taken to the home of the Dixie Highway association, where a dinner will be served. After lunch the party will start for home. Speeches will be made on route by President W. Tom Winn, Oscar Mills, T. G. Woolford, F. T. Reynolds and "Cousin" Fred Houser. T. R. Gentry will do the pathfinding.

STRAND GIVES BENEFIT

Profits Wednesday Will Go to Tag Day Fund.

On Tag day, Wednesday, April 17, the management of the Strand theater will give to the Tag day fund all of the receipts taken in on that day in excess of the actual expenses.

In this way the friends of the Sheltering Arms can secure double enjoyment through attending the performance at this popular theater on that day.

The film to be shown is "Woman and the Law," based on the famous DeSaulles case, which asks and answers the pertinent question, "Has the law the right to deprive a mother of her child?"

The Sheltering Arms, with its five day nurseries, is dependent on the receipts taken in on Tag day for its support. These day nurseries care for 600 children each day throughout the year, in order that their mothers may work and support them, and not have to give them up permanently to other institutions.

Lovers of moving pictures and friends of the Sheltering Arms are urged to attend the performance of this film at the Strand on Wednesday.

COTTON IN THOMAS CO. WAS NIPPED BY FROST

Thomasville, Ga., April 14.—(Special.)—Reports from the county districts state that cotton in many sections has been pretty badly nipped by the recent cold and that cantaloupes and watermelon vines also seem injured. The cold seems to have done more damage in the county than in some, as gardens here seem unharmed, while in the country beans and other tender vegetables were injured.

Dr. Tucker Will Show Kaiser Cannot Realize World Domination Dream

Great audiences are attending the sermons of Dr. Leon Tucker, of New York city, at the Baptist tabernacle. He began his ministry yesterday morning with an audience that had never heard him before. At the close of the day it was the consensus of opinion that no stronger expounder of the scriptures had ever stood upon the tabernacle platform.

Dr. Tucker will give his messages on the Book of Daniel and Revelation throughout the coming week. This evening he will demonstrate from prophetic truth how utterly impossible it is for the Kaiser to realize his dream of world domination. The Beast of Berlin will come to naught because the divine program has decreed such. He will teach every afternoon at 3 o'clock and preach every evening at 8 o'clock.

"I had known of Dr. Tucker and his work as a Bible teacher for several years, but I was not prepared for the surprise that came to me Sunday morning when he preached at the Baptist tabernacle," said Rev. J. W. Ham. "He is the equal of any man I have ever heard. My only great fear is that Atlanta will not discover him until his ministry is right at the close."

Bible students and Sunday school teachers of all denominations cannot afford to miss the finest religious treat that has been afforded Atlanta in a long time. My one invitation to the public is, Come once and you will not miss another address."

DICK BOSCHE AT REST

Red Men Have Charge of the Services at Grave.

By E. C. Bratley.

The funeral of R. C. Bosche, old and widely known Atlantian, who died Thursday afternoon at his home, 231 Washington street, took place yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from H. M. Patterson & Son's chapel on Forsyth street, and was largely attended by many friends of the family among the older Atlantians.

Delegates from the Odd Fellows, the Red Men, the Elks and the Atlanta Turn Verein, of which orders Mr. Bosche had long been a member, were in attendance, the Red Men having charge of the service. At the grave flowers in abundance and of rare beauty were banked about the casket as Rev. Dr. Dunbar Ogden, of the Central Presbyterian church, spoke of Mr. Bosche's life and his life work, paying the dead man a tribute, every sentence of which was echoed by the friends of Dick Bosche who had known him in life and knew of the many kind deeds he had done.

A few years ago few men in Atlanta were more widely known, and none more generally liked than Dick Bosche. Full of energy and good cheer, he carried happiness and pleasure with him wherever he went. At one time he was president in city and county politics, and his record in that line was always clean and for the best interest of Atlanta, Fulton county and the people.

As a member of the city and of the county democratic executive committees, he had no little to do with the work of those organizations. He was at all times being for the betterment of political conditions. Generous, honest, he gave to every one his dues and left the world with a clean record.

Mr. Bosche was a native of New York, but passed the greater part of his life in Atlanta. He leaves a wife, who was Miss Fischer, daughter of an Atlanta physician, and three sons, two daughters. To his family he was devoted and was always a good provider. His children being given the educational advantages the state afforded, and each of them have developed into excellent citizens. They will miss him, and so will his many friends.

SATILLA RIVER BRIDGE IS ALMOST COMPLETED

Brunswick, Ga., April 14.—(Special.)—The bridge now in course of construction across the Satilla river at Woodbine by the commissioners of Camden county will be ready for use within the next two weeks, according to information received here today. The bridge is practically complete on either side of the river, and the work of placing the large span in the center will begin this week. The Camden county soldiers will open bids at their meeting for the erection of a house for the keeper of the building, which will go up on the Woodbine side of the river, and which means that both day and night service will be afforded automobiles.

This bridge has been built by Camden county as the result of a promise made the Dixie highway commissioners when they made an inspection of the route nearly two years ago.

INCREASE ALLOWED AMERICUS LIGHTING CO.

Americus, Ga., April 14.—(Special.)—After having the petition for an increase in gas and electric rates in Americus, under consideration for more than a month, the railroad commission has allowed the increase asked. The only change made by the commission is a rule requiring the company to discount all bills 10 per cent when such bills are paid by the 10th instant. The new rates are an advance of approximately 20 per cent of existing rates here, light the maximum rate for lighting 12 cents, and that for power 24 cents per k. w. h. The new rate for gas is $1.69 per 100 cubic feet, but all bills subject to a penalty of 10 per cent, unless paid by the 10th of the current month.

AMERICUS MUST RAISE $2,500 FOR SANITATION

Americus, Ga., April 14.—(Special.)—Americus sanitary improvements here at once, or the soldiers stationed at Southern field, near the city, will not be permitted to come into town for any purpose whatever. Provided the city will raise the amount indicated, the government will expend $20,000 additional in cleaning up certain swamps and in more clearly defining the channels of the Satilla river and the small streams flowing near the city. The matter has been presented to Americus, which is a representative of the federal government, and the pledge has been given that the money will be raised.

BRUNSWICK DELEGATION TO GO TO HEAR HARRIS

Brunswick, Ga., April 14.—(Special.)—It is probable that Brunswick will be well represented by Eucyross when William J. Harris opens his campaign for the United States senate in that city. While definite plans have not as yet been completed, members of the local W. J. Harris club are arranging to secure a large delegation to be present at the opening of the campaign. It is probable that the club will hold a meeting before the date of the speaking, at which regular representatives will be named, while all members of the club and all supporters of Mr. Harris will be asked to go. It is believed that practically every citizen in this section will be represented at the gathering.

PAULIST CHORISTERS WILL SING TONIGHT

Concert Will Begin Promptly at 8 O'Clock and Large Crowd Is Expected.

One hundred boys' and men's voices, the most beautifully trained in America, will sing tonight at the Auditorium, when the Paulist Choristers give their concert under the auspices of the local council, Knights of Columbus. The concert will begin at 8 o'clock promptly, and the audience, which will be very large, is requested to make a special effort to be in their seats by this hour.

The choir is under the most effective leadership of Rev. William J. Finn, a choirmaster of such attainments that he is the recipient of decorations abroad. His wonderful capacity for training boys' voices is very much in evidence in the work of his choristers.

Of special interest in connection with the tour is the fact that the organization is pledged to raise $100,000 for the French reclamation fund for the rebuilding of the ruined cities of France. The concert will also benefit the war camp activities of the Knights of Columbus.

Just before the choir began its invasion of the south two weeks ago, it sang before President Wilson in Washington, and also at Mount Vernon. Another unique ceremony in which it engaged was the funeral service of the Rev. Bishop Alfred McGill Randolph, Protestant Episcopal bishop of Virginia. As the remains were moved from the steamer to the train at Newport News, a very beautiful requiem was sung.

The concert in Atlanta will be largely attended. St. Philip's Cathedral has purchased a special stand for the members of its boy choir. Other organizations have also bought large reservations. Nothing of the kind along the lines of choir music has been heard here, and all church singers are especially interested.

The program will consist of a wide range of selections. There will be both old and new, religious and secular music; and every lover of music in any form will be delighted with the concert.

Tickets are on sale at the Cable Piano company, until 1 o'clock this evening, when they will be removed to the box office at the Auditorium.

CHICKEN THIEF KILLED WHILE ROBBING ROOST

Valdosta, Ga., April 14.—(Special.)—Will James, a noted negro chicken thief, was shot and killed early this morning by J. F. Husbands, about two miles from this city, while James was attempting to enter the chicken house of Husbands' place. Early in the evening it was thought that someone was growing about the place, and Mr. Husbands concealed himself in some bushes and about 1 o'clock he saw a man climb the fence near the chicken house. He called to the man to halt, and when he did not know whether he was going to shoot or not, he immediately fired, hitting the man in the left side, and causing death about two hours later.

G. S. & F. PASSENGER WRECKED IN VALDOSTA

Valdosta, Ga., April 14.—(Special.)—Georgia Southern and Florida passenger train, from Atlanta to Valdosta, was wrecked at the Hill Avenue crossing in Valdosta at 4:30 this afternoon. The engine, a Pullman, and three coaches, split a switch at the crossing. The trucks were torn from the engine and the coaches were thrown over the side. The car was filled with passengers, a colored woman was injured, she being cut about the arm with broken glass from window. All other cars remained on the tracks, but passengers were badly shaken up and it will take several days to clear the tracks so traffic can proceed.

FLORIDA TOWN VOTES TO USE NO MORE WHEAT

Thomasville, Ga., April 14.—(Special.)—The citizens of Monticello, Fla., just across the line in Jefferson county, hold the record, so far as heard of, for their patriotism in the way of food conservation. At a mass meeting of several hundred of the principal residents of the town, called by Food Administrator T. C. Bradford, every man and woman in the audience with one accord rose and agreed that if necessary they would use no flour until the 1918 crop came in.

At a meeting of the merchants the next day the mass meeting, every man signed a pledge not to buy any more wheat flour until the 1918 crop is released by the government.

Scouts Selling Bonds.

Brunswick, Ga., April 14.—(Special.)—The local Liberty Loan committee is high in its praise of the excellent work that is being done in Brunswick by the Boy Scouts, who have exceeded all expectations in the sale of bonds. The boys were organized Monday for the campaign, and they carried out determined to surpass their efforts in the two previous campaigns, and have succeeded to such an extent as to draw expressions of commendations from the people of the city generally.

Moultrie P. O. Exam.

Moultrie, Ga., April 14.—(Special.)—An examination for postmaster at Moultrie will be held here on April 15. It will not be a civil service examination, but will be under the executive order issued by the president March 31, 1917. The competitors will be examined in education and business training and experience. The order counting for 80 against 20 for education. The office pays $2,600.

Grady After Quota.

Thomasville, Ga., April 14.—(Special.)—Up to yesterday Grady county had only raised $80,000 of the $134,000 allotted to it in the Liberty Loan issue, but the citizens are getting very much aroused over the matter and rallies are being arranged for the various towns in the county. A large subscription to be added yesterday and Whigham is to hold a big rally this week.

SORE FOOT SANITATION

There is a germ that grows on the leather of shoes and infects the pores of the skin, causing inflammation, swelling, perspiration, odor, pain, eczema and thickening of the skin as in corns, bunions and around so-called "ingrowing" nails. These corns are instantly destroyed by Eucapine, the antiseptic, healing salve, applied after bathing at bedtime. The pain and swelling disappear before morning, but if the skin is thickened "ingrowing" nails and around so-called "ingrowing" nails, the treatment must be repeated until the thickening disappears and the nail becomes thin and pliable. This removes the pressure and friction and permanently corrects the trouble.

Eucapine is the modern scientific treatment for pain, inflammation, germ infections of the skin and distribution of every well-ordered drug store, family drug store, like service, all drug stores, Atlanta, St. Paul, Minn.

War-Time Hints for the Housekeeper

A LIVELY PROTEST CAUGHT IN PASSING.

By LILY REYNOLDS, of Atlanta. Written especially for The Constitution.

"Before taking any of my folk to a sanitarium, sanatorium or other institution of reformation place again, I shall go and look all of them over, visit a patient or two, for an hour or so, keep a sly eye on the doctor's unguarded movements and watch the nurses' ways, and choose the place with a conscientious doctor who is first an honest man, next a practical one and then the rest of it skillful and that. We are paying $37 a week for a special nurse for my daughter, and yet you would think our daughter a charity patient in a detention place for the undeserving. Instead of a gentleman in a so-called reputable institution paying full price, skilled bed linen, dusty floors and furniture, hours of neglect—for two hours her signal burned unnoticed when she was suffering awful thirst."

"She was injured just after her operation by the carelessness of a nurse, and made to endure repeated pain to the injury by the indifference of another."

"I know nurses have a hard time, and sanitariums cannot get all the nurses they need, but when one pays for service one has a right to it. It is as though some of them said 'We want your money, but we shall give you as little as possible in return.' For that is the language of their actions."

"Much valuable time might be saved for merchants, taxi men, baggage men and others needing to know the location of streets if they would provide their drivers and delivery boys with proper maps of the city, and teach them to look up the streets. Often and often they lose hours vainly inquiring for short, little known streets that they could find in five minutes by means of a map. In fact, if all the citizens formed the map carrying clubs, the stranger in the gates would linger to call them blessed, when relieved, comforted and put in the right way of finding his destination amid Atlanta's devious streets."

Last week a man at our door confessed to losing two hours looking for a certain place that confuses even the very elect. My map put him on his way rejoicing.

"School children might profitably part of the time spent on maps drawing, studying on those of their home city and county, it seems to me."

WILL DECIDE ON SITE FOR NEW SCHOOLHOUSE

Moreland Avenue School Patrons Are Called to Meet Tuesday Evening.

Citizens of the ninth ward are requested to attend a mass meeting on Tuesday at 8 o'clock in the Moreland Avenue school house, to definitely decide upon a suitable location for the proposed new Moreland Avenue school.

Major R. J. Guilman, president of the board of education, is expected to be present and address those present upon this matter. The Parent-Teacher association is particularly anxious that the parents of every child who attends this school be present and express their views on the subject.

The special committee appointed at the meeting held on Monday last will make a report at this meeting.

Every citizen in the ninth ward is cordially invited to attend as the association is desirous of ascertaining the wishes of the majority of citizens in this ward on this question of a suitable site.

HARD DRIVE FOR BONDS TO BE MADE IN HOUSTON

Fort Valley, Ga., April 14.—(Special.)—One of the most untiring workers for the sale of thrift stamps and war certificates in this section is Mrs. Marion C. Wilson, of this city, appointed county chairman of the Council of National Defense by Mrs. S. M. Inman, of Atlanta.

In the last Liberty Loan drive Fort Valley doubled her allotment. In every call of the government the patriotism of the people of Fort Valley has been inspiring and generous response.

And while the amount of thrift stamps and war certificates allotted to this section is stupendous in the aggregate, Mrs. Wilson, the county chairman, is firm in the belief that the full amount and more will be sold.

Mrs. E. H. Mason, Brunswick.

Brunswick, Ga., April 14.—(Special.)—Mrs. Edward H. Mason passed away at her home in this city yesterday afternoon, after a long illness. The deceased had been for some time confined and had been treated first at a hospital in Atlanta and later at Johns Hopkins, Baltimore. She returned to the city only a short time ago and was thought to be improving. Besides her husband, Mrs. Mason is survived by five children, Mrs. J. H. Parker of this city, and Mrs. Irvin Barge of Atlanta. The funeral was held this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

NO REPORT YET MADE ON DEATH OF SIMONS

Colonel Frank D. Ely Has Already Taken Charge of 327th Regiment.

The board of officers appointed Friday to investigate the death of Colonel William H. Simons, commander of the 327th infantry regiment at Camp Gordon, had not made any official report of their findings Sunday, and officials at headquarters state that there is a possibility that the report will not be made in a day or two.

The belief that Colonel Simons' death is the result of suicide remains unchanged at the camp, and it is confidently expected that the board will bring in a verdict that he died by his own hand. He was found dead in his quarters at the camp Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock by a negro soldier, with a loaded pistol lying at his side.

Colonel Frank D. Ely, popular and efficient commander of the military police train, has assumed his new duties as commander of the 327th, and is carrying on the routine work of the regiment. As yet no appointment to Colonel Ely's former command has been made.

BROOKS COUNTY NEEDS HER QUOTA IN BONDS

Quitman, Ga., April 14.—(Special.)—Quitman and Brooks county men in a monster mass meeting here Sunday in the interest of Liberty bonds and delivered in the open air, participated in the meeting. The speakers were more than one thousand school children passed through the streets bearing banners and singing Liberty songs. All sections of the county were represented both in the parade and at the mass meeting, and hundreds of people came to town to participate. The big Liberty clock in the Scriven street park registered 2000 at 8 o'clock this afternoon. Brooks county's quota is $123,000.

COMMODORE FEDS LOSE TO LOCALS

Moran, Mayer and Shay Drive Ball to All Corners of Field, Crackers Winning by 9-to-1 Count.

FRANK DOESN'T KNOW WHEN AGOGAS PLAY. Manager Charles Frank, of the Crackers, is up in the air as to whether the Crackers play the Agogas this afternoon or Tuesday afternoon.

By Dick Jemison. The Crackers paid a visit to the Federal prison yesterday and played the Commodore Feds, winning the game by the score of 9 to 1.

The bantering from the spectators was the feature of the game to those from the "outside." These fans "inside" know baseball. They know how it should be played, and they do not hesitate to express themselves. Their own men get a good "razing" when they play a bone or play poorly otherwise.

Use Cracker Baiters. The Feds were loaned four Cracker twirlers for the game. Ad Brennan pitched the first four innings, and the Crackers nicked him for three runs, two of which, however, were the gifts of his supporters.

Weston succeeded Brennan and lasted long enough to fill the bases, and they were promptly cleaned on Minor Jones, who succeeded "Bugs." But neither Weston nor Jones were in any shape for pitching, their arms ailing them.

Adrian Lynch finished the game for the Feds, twirling the last three innings, and he kept the Crackers pretty much at bay. He was the only twirler that they failed to score on.

Elliott went the whole route for the Crackers, with Eubanks doing the receiving. The Tennessee youngster showed a lot of stuff, and only in the sixth inning, when the Feds bunched three hits for their own run, were they dangerous.

Moran, Mayer, Shay. We're indebted to Roy Moran for something that we have been wanting to see for some time—a home run with the bases full. After Weston had filled the bases with free tickets in the fifth inning, Roy made one of Jones' ten years with the "Keely" physician in charge, 229 Woodward avenue, Atlanta, Ga.

How They Tallied. McDowell's single and Mayer's double gave the Crackers one in the second. Blake's single and Shay's error and the third. The Feds' second double, counted for the third.

Crackers. In the fifth inning were tallied above. Elliott's single, Shay's triple and Cozart's error gave the Crackers their final two runs in the sixth.

Starnes' double, Reynolds' single and Blake's single gave the Feds one in the sixth.

TIME OF OPENING GAME NOT FIXED

Depends on Liberty Loan Parade—4:15 if the Parade Starts at 2:30—At 3:30 if Parade Is at 1:30.

The time of the start of the opening game of the Southern league season at Ponce de Leon between the Crackers and Lookouts has not been determined as yet.

It depends entirely on the Liberty Loan parade that is slated for that afternoon.

If the parade starts at 2:30 o'clock, the game will be held until 4:15 o'clock.

If the parade starts at 1:30 o'clock, the game will start at the regularly announced time of 3:30 o'clock.

Inasmuch as the merchants of the city are closing for the opening game, or permitting their employees to attend, and inasmuch as the request has been made on behalf of the colored people, for whom and by whom the parade is being staged, the committee in charge of the parade and the one in charge of the game should get together and set a time for each event, so as not to have them conflict.

$3,000 MARK PASSED BY WHEAT ST. CHURCH. Blind Man Contributes $5 to Help in Securing New Building.

The Wheat Street Baptist church's financial effort for the new church to take the place of the building destroyed by flames last May, came to a gloss on last evening in the presence of a crowd of about 100 people.

The goal set one hundred days ago was for $3,000 in cash, but the figures, when added up, showed that the amount was beyond that mark.

A touring party took place at the afternoon service, when the pastor, Rev. P. James Bryant, in presenting the names and offerings of the various contributors, came to a little soiled bag, tied with a string, containing $5 that had been sent to the church by a blind man, who said that he wanted to have a part in the "rally," too.

This contribution made a remarkable impression on the audience, bringing tears to the eyes of many.

The church was the scene of a continuous religious service during the entire day, beginning with the Sunday school at the early morning hours.

When Dr. Mabrit delivered a strong sermon from Mark 12:14. In the afternoon a platform meeting was held, at which time addresses were delivered by Rev. Ernest Hall, H. W. Russell, J. T. Mabrit, and Rev. Mabrit, who made the try from Augusta to help conduct this special effort for the new Wheat Street church.

Local Merchants to Help Crackers in Opening Game

Two Hundred and Forty-five Have Already Enlisted. Others to Follow—Who'll Be Next?

HERE'S A BOSS WHO IS A FAN. "Dick Jemison, Sporting Editor, The Constitution: Referring to the Crackers, I wish to advise that this company will close its place of business on April 15 to enable all employees to attend the opening ball game, and I have put a heavy penalty on the head of every clerk who fails to put in an appearance at Ponce de Leon park in this game.

By Dick Jemison. Atlanta merchants are doing themselves proud in rallying to the support of the baseball club and the city for the opening day attendance prize again this season for the Gate City of the South.

Ninety-four of them have already agreed to close half-day Thursday, while one hundred and fifty-one others have agreed to close their establishments as they can consistently attend the opener.

BARBER AND BOOTBLACK HELD AFTER SHOOTING

Police Are Probing Mysterious Death of Negro in the Calhoun Building.

Following the death of "Mack," his full name is not known—the negro elevator man at the Calhoun building, whose body was discovered in the elevator shortly before 11 o'clock Sunday night, J. C. Humphries, 34 years old, a barber at the Etowah shop at 11 West Alabama street, who lives at 452 East Georgia avenue, and Lemmie Graham, the negro bootblack, employed at the same establishment, were arrested by Detective Sergeant Bullard and Sergeant Reed and taken to the police station.

The officers claim Humphries came to them on Alabama street, and said he had heard that some one was hurt in an elevator in the Calhoun building. When they came to the entrance they found the door locked, and a few minutes later the negro bootblack told them he had the key, and unlocked the door. Rushing in they found the elevator man dead in the elevator, shot through the breast.

The police were notified and a squad of detectives, led by Sergeant Bullard, Deputy Sheriff J. L. Moore and Jeff Wright, city finger-print expert, arrived. The body of the negro was searched and $44.25 were found in his pockets.

On the third floor of the building a storeroom door was unlocked and discovered and a trail of blood to the elevator. The room was found in great disorder, and the floor was strewn with cigarette stubs being scattered on the floor.

Humphries stated he knew nothing about the affair and said he heard a soldier and a small boy say that some one was hurt, and he reported it to the police.

It is believed by city detectives that the negro was of the Calhoun building, third floor, and ran to the elevator, starting it off, and then fell dead, and the first floor elevator stopped automatically. An inquest will be held this afternoon.

Up to a late hour last night the detectives had not learned the full name of the victim.

AMUSEMENTS

"America at War." (At the Atlanta Theater.) Indorsed absolutely by President Wilson, the public is taking an immense interest in the presentation of these pictures whose exhibition is sanctioned, and indeed directed by the United States government. Through the committee on public information films, and were taken by camera men employed in the division of films of the committee on public information. The series of pictures to be shown at the Atlanta theater for an engagement of four matinees and four nights commencing Wednesday afternoon, have been named "America at War," "Over There," "Over There," "That they will 'get over' with a bang 'over here,' is a foregone conclusion, especially when it is remembered that Uncle Sam is looking for no profit, and the net proceeds of the show will be devoted to local and foreign charities having war objects for their motive. At each showing of Uncle Sam's wonderful pictures Sapper John Bouches, one of the first of the Canadians to "go over the top," will address the audience. The advance seat sale opens today.

Keith Vaudeville. (At the Lyric.) Julia Nash and company, in the rollicking comedy gem, "Three G. M.," will be the headliner at the Lyric theater for the first half of this week and Lew Dockstader will be the big number for the last half. With two such headliners there will be little trouble in packing the house at every performance.

Movie Stars in Person. (At Loew's Grand.) In addition to the exceptionally fine bill which will be presented at Loew's Grand theater Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, there will be a special extra attraction at both performances tonight, when Madge Evans, most popular of little movie stars, and Johnny Hines, one of the funniest comedians on the screen, will appear in person in the purchase and sale of cotton and cotton seed oil for future delivery. Special attention and liberal terms given for consignments of spot cotton for delivery. Correspondence invited.

Elsie Ferguson. (At the Forsyth.) The artistic genius of Elsie Ferguson, the talented actress, stands in suitable expression in the stirring picture production, "The Law," based upon Henry Arthur Jones' sensational play, which will be the leading feature of the bill at the Forsyth theater today.

Miriam Cooper. (At the Strand.) Are there provocations which justify a woman to kill? asks the William Fox photoplay, which will be the leading feature of the bill at the Strand today with Miriam Cooper in the lead. Based on the internationally sensational "Daisy" domestic tragedy, it presents with thrilling realism.

The bigger the crowd this season the better. The prize this year is one well worth working for. Instead of a silver trophy, President Baugh is to present $100 to the city winning the opening attendance, and the proviso is that this is to be presented to some local organization engaged in patriotic or charitable work. Thus Atlanta fans and merchants by attending the opening game will be helping a worthy cause and at the same time keeping Atlanta's slogan, "Atlanta Always Ahead," meaning what it says.

One thousand postal cards have been mailed to the merchants of the city asking them to help in the movement, and the replies have been liberal. There is still time to get on the band wagon. If you haven't mailed your return card, or if you did not get a card, send in your name and it will be printed.

Close up opening day and help the Liberty Bond parade of the colored organizations on that afternoon and then follow it by attending the ball game and help Atlanta "go over the top" in attendance.

Every industry in Atlanta is represented in the list of merchants printed in Sunday's Constitution. Other names will be added to the list from day to day.

LAKESIDE OPENING TO GALA EVENT

Fine Program for Memorial Day—Many Improvements Made at the Park.

The arrangements for the opening of Lakeside park Memorial day, Friday, April 26, are complete and the residents of Atlanta and surrounding country will be provided with a recreational program the following week which will, in the judgment of the management, be welcomed by thousands of people.

In connection with the entertainment program which will be provided during the summer, the park management desires to call attention to the fact that the president and his advisers realize that wholesome recreation and entertainment is equally necessary with increased labor and those who thoughtlessly decline against indulging in pleasures during the war do not make the distinction between unnecessary and prodigal gratification and the class of entertainment necessary to maintain buoyancy of spirit during the stress and strain of a national peril.

The improvement of the grounds have continued during the winter and everything will be found much better in order to afford enjoyment of the park in all kinds of weather. Streets have been paved; walks improved and the entire park is being made ready in order to provide Atlanta with a real park like those enjoyed by the people of Detroit, Cleveland, Minneapolis and other large interior cities. Boating, which is both healthful and a means of forgetting care, will, of course, be one of the unusual things that may not always be safely enjoyed mid the red hills of Georgia; the boats have all been repainted and put in good condition. The bathing platform is in good condition for use until the new dancing pavilion, which will be built in the very near future, is completed. Tennis courts have been built and work is under way to provide open air bathing and swimming on terraces that form a natural amphitheater where the patrons may witness the pictures and the vaudeville, the charm of the place at night to be enhanced by many colored lights in the trees overhead.

Lakeside will be especially attractive to school children, who will find it convenient in the way of seats and tables and accommodations almost as good as a crowd, but the natural flora and botanical studies possible offer views of nature that are found in the average field or forest.

The program of gala week, April 25-May 5, will be announced in a few days, and will include soldier athletic events and auto racing. In addition to the permanent features of the regular park program.

The executive committee of the Southeastern National business week perfecting plans for completing the big concrete grandstand which has been made possible by the action of the county commissioners. This vast amphitheater will be such a combination of the old and new that the patrons of the park, that its construction will be hastened by every possible means.

After a bit of a rest over Sunday, Mike Evans, popular little movie star, will start out early this morning with the rest of the members of the company for the purpose of making more scenes in the photoplay which is being staged in and around Atlanta by the World Film Corporation.

Stone Mountain, Piedmont park and other local points which take the fancy of the director, early this morning will be the director and camera man, and all the odds and ends that go into the making of a picture, are hustled into a couple of automobiles at the Wincoff, where the company is staying, and off they go for a hard day's work.

During off hours Madge is besieged by a throng of admirers, some of whom want merely to shake the little lady's hand, while others insist on a picture and not a few seek the latest dope on just how to achieve success on the shadow stage. But Madge, in spite of all this attention, is not a bit spoiled. She is just a mighty attractive little girl and she gets a lot of out of it all. Incidentally she thinks Atlanta is "great," and she is very fond of George L. Weaver, local representative of the World Film corporation, who has promised to buy her a dog. The World movie actors will stay in Atlanta for three or four more days before completing the picture here. Madge Evans will appear Monday night at the performance at Levee Grand theatre, and Johnny Hines, noted screen comedian, who will be remembered for his part in "The Wake Up," will also be seen on the Grand stage. Motion pictures, in which both actors will appear, will be shown on the screen at the same time.

Miss Evans is accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. H. Evans. The company here are Miss Violet Palmer, Miss Kitty Johnston, little Miss Maxine Hicks and mother, John Hines, Frank H. Crane, H. Patten, Charles Hartley, J. Monahan, M. Purry, T. Zuker, M. Bittor, J. Hyland and Frank Zuker.

HELP THRIFT CAMPAIGN, URGES PROF. HOLMES

A patriotic meeting was held in Holy Trinity church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. W. E. Williams, pastor. The principal address was delivered by Professor R. B. Holmes, president of the Holmes Institute, one of the foremost leaders of the thrift stamps campaign among the colored citizens. "Every colored person in the state should turn out in the park on Thursday, April 18," said Professor Holmes. Thrift stamp clubs ought to be organized in every county. He urged the colored people to buy Liberty Bonds and give their energy, ability, money and loyalty to the government which is striving to keep them free.
